F. I. RUSHMORE HELD FOR SWINDLING.

Frederick I. Rushmore, who has been living for son time on the proceeds of forged checks which he induced New-York business men to cash by means of fletitions letters, was arrested on Monday afternoon by Captain letters, was arrested on Monday afternoon by Captain Cross and Detectives Smith and Place, of the Eidridge-st. police station, in Ischar Lewkowitz's jewerry store, at No. 230 Grand-st. Rushmore called on Lewkowitz on Saturday afternoon last, and by means of a forged letter and check secured $75 in cash and some jewerry. Mr. Lewkowitz discovered the fraud after the swindler hall left the place. When Rushmore returned to the store on Monday afternoon with another forged check for $135 Lewkowitz notified the police.

Rushmore told Captain Cross that since his discharge from the Regular Army ast spring, he had done little or no work. A letter in his possession addressed to a friend contained a memorandum of his swindlings.

to a friend contained a memorandum of his swindlings, which amounted, for a few weeks, to $288. Rushmore was arraigned in the Essex Market Police Court yesterday, and was held for trial. He expressed the belief that either his mother, a widow, his uncle, Dr. Rushmore, in Plainfield, N. J., would help him out of his trouble. The prisoner is twenty-two years old.

"OF R CHAUNCEY."—" Our Chauncey "is Chauncey".

M. Depew, who is certainly acknowledged to be one of the foremost of American orators-brilliant, sparkling, sound and sagacious. His after-dinner speeches are both the models and the despair of his rivals, "Our Chauncey" is a poem, by Isanc Il-Bromley, illustrated profusely and comically by Dag Beard and C. D. Gibson, two of the best pen-and-ink artists in New-York City. It is a delicious piece of fun, and it is moreover thoroughly possessed of a spirit of genial and sincere admiration for its eloquent sabolgaint and succes anniration for the plan ever done his wit more credit than in these dashing, rol-licking and brilliant verses. Retail price, $1 a copy, The book has been offered as a premium to the readers of Tho Weekly Tribuse; and any actual subscriberts The Daily may now obtain it on the same terms, 80 cents a copy in addition to his subscription, book is sent to a paper box.
